In Memoriam

In Memory of

Mr. Fred Burgess

To our teacher in the eighth grade, Mr. Fred Burgess, for kindness, for intelligence, and for nobility of character,
we dedicate this page.

Dedication

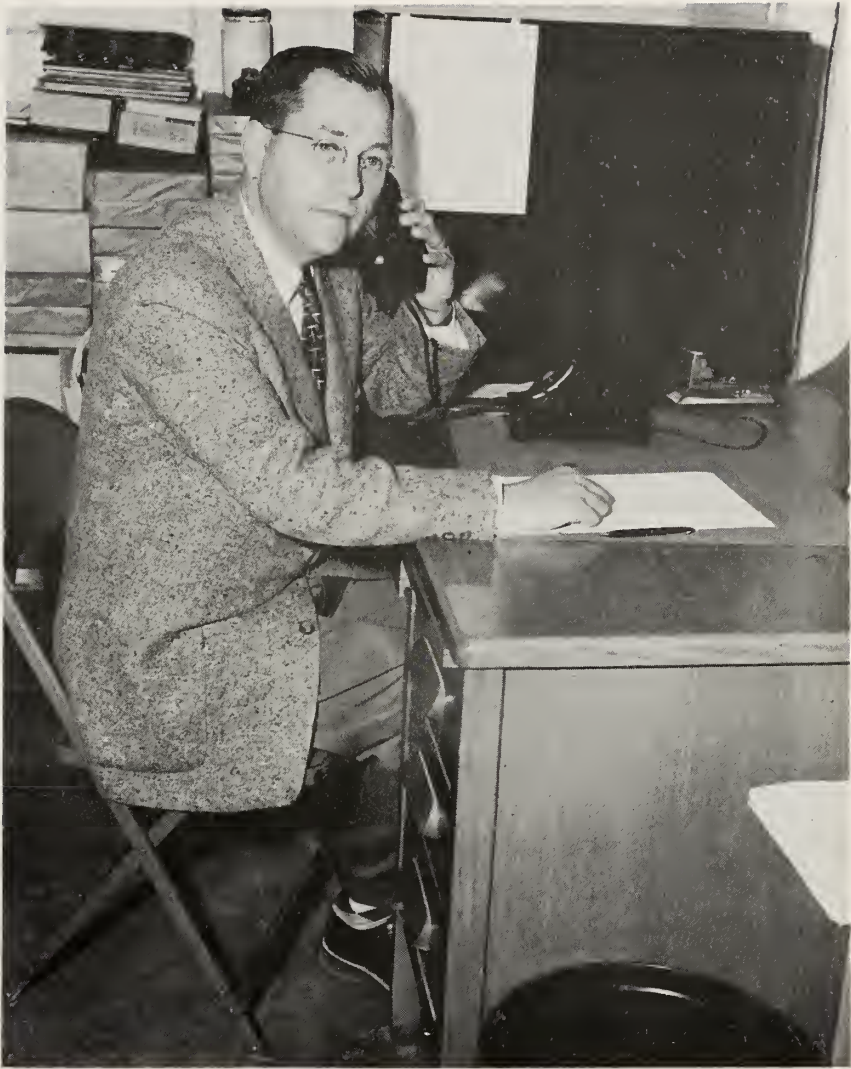

To Mr. J. P. Thompson, our teacher and Coach: For time unselfishly given to teaching and to building a good school spirit in athletics, we, the Senior Class of '54, dedicate this volume "High Lights of F. H. S."

Class History

In September, 1950, we, the class of 1954, made our first appearance in high school. As newcomers, we were somewhat backward in getting acquainted with high school ways.

We became pretty well-adjusted after the first few weeks had passed. Mr. Jack Andrews became our home room teacher. We selected our class officers with Emma Jo Wallace as president. By working very hard, the Freshman class accomplished a lot this year. Some of our outside activities were a few wiener roasts and class parties. We entered the ninth grade with forty-two pupils. During the year, we lost Kenneth Cranford, Shirley Cranford, Lee Gibson, Ralph Henson, Bobby Miller, Betty Jo Rich, Betty Trotter, and Golda York.

Soon our first year in high school was completed, and after our summer vacation, we returned to school as Sophomores. We began our work with a little more ease this year. We chose Arnold Pugh as our class president. Mrs. James Chrismon became our home room teacher. We had many wiener roasts and some small get-togethers, all of which were a great success. We gained a new student, Bettie Lou Vuncannon, in our Sophomore year.

In September, 1952, we returned to school as gleeful Juniors. We selected Frederick Kimes as our president. Mr. E. S. Thomas, Jr., was our class advisor. We had all looked forward to our Junior year, especially to the ordering of our class rings and the planning of the Junior-Senior Banquet. We gained two new students, Burnice Bullard and Alma Ware. During the year, we lost Peggy Hall, Mary Ellen Jackson, Alma Ware, and Billy Potts. The marshals chosen from our class were Emma Jo Wallace, Chief, Doris Ferree, Ramona Hare, Inez Luther, Martha Phillips, Barbara Philbecks, and Lorraine Wallace.

One event we hadn't expected was the loss of our school, which was destroyed by fire New Year's Day. The citizens of Ramseur were considerate enough to let us use their basement as our high school quarters.

In June came graduation, the most unforgettable moment in most Seniors lives. We, each of us with our own individual thoughts, presented our daisy chain to the departing Seniors.

We returned to Franklinville High in September, 1953, as Seniors. Out of our four years in high school, our Senior year was the busiest and the most exciting. We were lucky to have as thoughtful a teacher as Miss Mary Holladay who watched over us and helped us through our hardest times. Our class officers were chosen as follows: president, Inez Luther; vice-president, Raymond Kinney; secretary, Betty Dunn; and treasurer, Donald Craven. Some of our greatest achievements were the class play, the publication of our Annual, "Highlights of F. H. S.", and our preparations for graduation. We will always remember the Junior-Senior Banquet. We owe our thanks to the Juniors for such pleasant memories.

Last but not least came graduation, which left us with unforgettable memories of our High School days. Now we must all go out into this new world and hope for the best success in the near future.

Class Prophecy

As I gaze into the crystal ball, I see the Seniors of 1954, Franklinville High School, ten years hence—

Turn onward, turn onward,
Oh, time in your flight
Let me see the graduates of '54
Ten years from tonight!

I see Shelby Barrett as she travels from place to place trying to keep up with her husband who is a staff sergeant in the army.

Well, Patty Cheek has really done a fine job in her drawings and is now employed with M-G-M in Hollywood as a fashion designer.

Since Margaret Cox didn't want to be an old maid, I see she is now happily married to a man who doesn't talk as much as she does.

I now see Nancy Davis still working at her hard task of raising her husband like she wants him since she did pick him young.

As we all remember, Betty Dunn started her career as a housewife early. She has carried her career even farther and now has two smiling youngsters. No one can say Betty didn't make a go of her marriage.

Doris Ferree is married to one of her ole "flames." I hear she is a very efficient wife. Maybe her Home Economics did her some good after all.

Listen, I hear music. It sounds like the voice of Ramona Hare, who is now recording the nation's top hit tunes. Her voice will always be remembered by her classmates because singing was always her first love.

I now see Rosa Harvell very happy driving a yellow convertible in the deserts of Texas for her husband, who is an officer in the army.

Donna Vee Kinney always wanted to teach school but now I see she is a rich old maid and living like a queen.

Inez Luther always wanted to do work in her home and now I see she is getting rich and also is happily married.

I see Jacqueline Malone has finally married a Craven and is now running Craven's Kindergarten.

Betty McPherson has always dreamed of a little brick house and a husband. Now she is happily married and caring for two children.

I now see Bernice Nance helping her husband in a business of their own and making good at it. I wonder how she likes living so far away from home.

Barbara Philbeck has already tried teaching and laboratory technician work and doesn't like either one so she has decided to marry a Marine.

Who is that old maid school teacher taking Miss Holladay's place? Could it be Martha Phillips?

I see Peggy Rich is still single because she just isn't the type to settle down. She thinks a husband would just be more trouble.

I see Elizabeth Smith is now an old maid and is running her own dairy farm. Of course, she has men to help.

Betty Vuncannon's dinner ring has finally turned into a bridal set. She doesn't give up easily.

I see Emma Jo Wallace is really doing well as private secretary to her husband in South America who owns the Davis Construction Company.

Lorraine Wallace has now taken over Miss Wood's place in teaching the first grade and I hear she is doing a fine job.

I see Marie Williamson has finally got to Germany, but is really having a hard time trying to find him among the other soldiers.

I see Burnice Bullard has done a fine job since he took over teaching Mr. Thomas's geography class.

Since Donald Craven is working with Arnold on television, I guess they will take Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis's place.

Lower the gangplank, folks. Do you see what I see? None other than Eugene Callicutt, who is now in the United States Navy.

Frederick Kimes is doing quite well in his new hardware store. He says the women don't buy rolling pins any more, but he passes the word along to the new brides that he has a new supply of can openers.

Our bashful classmate, Raymond Kinney, has changed quite a bit. He is now pastor of the Church of God, in Washington, D. C.

Troy Luck is one of the most successful farmers of our day. I heard he had to build larger barns this year because he is buying new machinery.

Arnold Pugh is now on television as a comedian. There was never a dull moment at school as long as Arnold was around.

George Redding did well as he was president of the Burlington Mills but was fired because he was dreaming of his girl-friends.

Say—"What's this?" "Buy your tickets for the baseball game tonight. Boyd Reynolds, formerly of Franklinville, North Carolina, stars for the Yankees." Well, all I can say is, I'll bet it's going to be exciting.

I see Norman Smith is now doing a fine job supporting his wife and children. I hear they are very happy.

My, that new grocery store that David Wright is building is really swell. If anyone wants a job, apply at Wright's Grocery and Super Market.

Well, Mama Holladay has just two more years and then she will be earning that rocking chair money she has always talked about and Mr. Montgomery to help her spend it.

Last Will and Testament

I, Shelby Barrett, will my Class Superlative, "Cutest," to Lucille Harvell, my shorthand book to Harris Rumley, my "Diamond" to Doris Allred, and my position on the Annual Staff to anyone who has fingers long enough to type.

I, Rosa Harvell, will my Class Superlative, "Best All-Round," to Harris Rumley, my Bookkeeping Workbook to David Ray, my electric typewriter to Lucille Harvell, and my position as Typist on the Annual Staff to anyone who has the nerves to put up with it.

I, Frederick Kimes, will my Class Superlative, "Most Likely to Succeed," to Gloria Kimes, my Football Jersey No. 51 to Ellis Neighbors, my ability to do good in typing to Harry Craven, and my bus to Frank Shepherd.

I, Donna Vee Kinney, will my Class Superlative, "Friendliest," to Nancy McKinnon, my giggles to Nolan Hurley, and my worn-out notebook to anyone who is unfortunate enough not to have one.

I, Raymond Kinney, will my bus, Little Slow Poke, to David Ray, and my Class Superlative, "Class Baby," to Ed Benbow.

I, Troy Luck, will my bus, "The Hot Rod," to Tommy Malone, and my Superlative, "Friendliest," to Harvey Lee Jarrett.

I, Inez Luther, will my Superlatives, "Miss F'ville Hi," to Hilda Rumbly, "Most Industrious," to Sue Thorpe, and my ability to get in the Beta Club to Nolan Hurley.

I, Jacqueline Malone, will my Superlatives, "Wittiest," to Buddy New, "Most Popular," to Edith Craven, and my position as scorekeeper to anyone who is able to keep count of Don Allred's points.

I, Betty McPherson, will my Superlative, "Most Studious," to Clifford Humble, my ability to read good books to Martha Luck, and my senior desk to Shelby Luck.

I, Bernice Ellen Nance, will my diamond to Ruby Dunn, my Superlatives, "Best Sport," to Johnny Carter, "Sweetest," to Jewel Nance, and my position on the ad committee to Betty Tippett.

I, Barbara Philbeck, will my Superlatives, "Most Intellectual," to William Henry Curtis, "Most Absent-Minded," to Dough Allred, my French grades to "George" Tippett, and my position as Chief Cheerleader to Shirley Craven.

I, Martha Vernon Phillips, will my Superlative, "Most Courteous," to Randy Wallace, my seat in typing class to Helen York, and my position as Cheerleader to whoever is willing to mess up the yells when we play Liberty.

I, Arnold Pugh, will my Superlatives, "Biggest Pest," to Calvin Scruggs, "Wittiest," to Buddy New, my ability to keep Miss Holladay laughing to Ed Benbow, and my Football Helmet to Gene Marley.

I, Boyd Reynolds, will my Class Superlatives, "Most Athletic," to Don Allred, "Best All-Round," to June Tom Marley, and my place on Mr. Thompson's Bench to Astor Kinney in hopes he can keep it warm.

I, George Redding, will my Class Superlatives, "Most Dependable," to Nancy McKinnon, "Biggest Flirt," to David Ray, "Night Hawk," to Tom Marley, and to anyone who wants them I leave all my girl friends.

I, Peggy Rich, will my Superlatives, "Most Musical," to Virginia Rich and Elaine Hopkins, "Night Hawk," to Peggy Callicutt, my Economics papers to Robert Shaw, my reckless driving habits to Buddy New, and my back-seat to Douglas Allred.

I, Mary Elizabeth Smith, will my ability to sleep in class after working the night before to Ed Benbow, "Biggest Pest," to Tommy Malone and Jesse Ingold, "Most Unselfish," to Johnny Carter, and my nickname, "Cow," to anyone who is willing to take jokes.

I, Norman Smith, will my Class Superlatives, "Quietest," to Harris Rumley, "Best Sport," to Jewel Nance, and "Most Versatile," to Peggy Jean Smith.

I, Bettie Vuncannon, will my Superlative, "Most Valuable," to my sister, Barbara, my place in the Beta Club to Peggy Smith, and my good times in Franklinville High to anyone who likes to have fun and go places.

I, Emma Jo Wallace, will my Superlative, "Most Likely to Succeed," to Randal Henson, my position as Editor of the Annual to Randy Wallace, and my typing and shorthand grades to Herman Spencer.

I, Lorraine Wallace, will my Superlatives, "Quietest," to David Ray, "Most Dependable" to Donald Pugh, my position as manager of the girls' basketball team to Peggy Deane Smith.

I, Marie Williamson, will my Superlatives, "Best Dressed," to Hilda Rumley, "Class Baby," to my brother, Joseph; like most boys he will probably remain a baby who likes to have his way, and my position as a cheerleader may go to anyone who has a mouth as big as mine and loves to talk.

I, David Wright, will my Superlative, "Most Unselfish," to Herman Spencer, and my bus to Don Allred.

THE END

it's a FACT!

As you turn these pages today, or on some tomorrow, you will re-live the wonderful times you had "back in the good ole' days" at your Alma Mater. With the passing of years this annual will become a priceless treasure-train to whisk you back along memory lane to rejoin your old friends and re-visit familiar places.

As we at USECO turn these pages, we see the America of tomorrow, the farmers, the lawyers, the doctors, and the many trades and professions so ably represented within these pages. We are honored to have played a part in recording this pictorial history of your 1954 school days . . .

. . . and THAT'S A FACT!
